

TELEGRAPHIC.

—

YESTERDAY'S NOON DISPATCH
Senior Advisors from Raleigh,
Union of Secretary Breckinridge
Links the Confederacy General
Rebel Leaders Looking to Meet

Western Troops ordered to Fight
 Stanton's Opinion of Mr. Sewell
 Insurrection feared at Havana

Seward Rapidly Convalesces

---

Geographic Communication

British Columbia.

---

New York, April 10.—The World's Washington special correspondent says: "Advisers received here today from Regina, N. C., state a confer-

On Sherman and Johnston took the rebel Hill, fifteen miles west of Raleigh's army, composed of about 10,000 men, including Hester's and Wheeler's, lay thirty miles from the city of Raleigh to Charlotte. On the afternoon Breckinridge, the rebel 8-crown was present. Hester participated in capturing the already published memoranda of capitulation. During the conversation he freely admitted the failure of the war, and declared peace was almost at hand, and in standing to the Confederacy.

adment, said it was directly the legal justification for slavery. He predicted that within by more than two-thirds of the South was understood that during this time, which lasted two days, J. F. Davis, Jefferson and in telegraphic communication with Brockbridge, at Johns O. S. head.

The men of the rebel army, with the aid of now and then some officers, was for peace, and desired to go throughout North Carolina there have earnest exhibitions of loyalty.

forces entered Raleigh the two papers—the Standard, edited by Holden, and the Progress—were found to have been printing Union sheets for sometime past. The publication was in some way secured. They continued with their regular work. No public or private property was taken by our troops, and the citizens, including numbers of ladies, appeared on the streets. Business was not even suspended. The news of the President's assassination reached Raleigh last Wednesday. That

A large meeting of citizens was held at a series of residences were parting the deed, and expressive sympathy for the nation and people. The 62nd regt surprised the army corps that sent them in. Gov. Vance (skaddled) his troops entered the place. The reaction was, therefore, untrue. When the ignorance left Raleigh it was the opinion of the army that the terms of Johnston's were unconditional submission. As a result of high rank no others were even hinted at.

CINCINNATI, April 10.—The remains of President Lincoln will be taken to Columbus Saturday. The City of Columbus is a large number of citizens will go up Friday to participate in the ceremonies. The remains were received yesterday to form a line to the front all troops in Columbus and Indiana.

General Ord is issued his official orders to take command at Richmond as successor to General Oso, on last Saturday. General Ord goes to Santa Carolina to meet General Gilmora. At previous to General Ord's relieving of command at Richmond, a circular was issued by his direction, informing the officers of L's army who desire to leave the country, that passports and permits to leave Halifax, Nova Scotia, would be furnished on application at the office of the New York, April 15.—The exchange of 5,000 U. S. soldiers at Darlen, Ga., which is to be taken place by this time, will leave a majority of our men in the hands of the rebels. There still remains in the hands of the Germans from 6,000 to 7,000 rebels, and these paroled under terms of a truce.

The Tribune's Washington special correspondent says: It is the opinion of well-informed gentlemen, that Jeff Davis will be sent to Georgia with a force of about 4,000 men to Texas, with which he will endeavor to join, in the event of his being permitted to cross the Mexican frontier. The Mexican Ministry lengthen and, it is said, most important interview with the President of the United States has been sent for, and is from St. Louis, and his army expected, and circumstances important significance to to-day's audience. The Tribune says:

From a gentleman arrived from Havana that serious, though guarded, apprehensions exist as to the possibility of a revolution. It is said that large detachments have been found and that several have been arrested. The plot is said to have all over the island, and Government is afraid of an outbreak notwithstanding the fact that the army is well equipped.

SURGEON GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, April 25, 1865.

Hon. E. M. Stanton:

Sir: I have the honor to report that the story of his case is convalescing rapidly, and speaks more distinctly the mind and is better.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. K. BARNES, Surgeon General.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1865.

Joseph Shaw, editor of the Western Illinois Democrat, was mobbed by a mob of men at the newspaper establishment on the night of the murder of Lincoln, on account of his disloyal statements. He had been warned by the postmaster to leave the state, but returned again yesterday to Westmont, at night he was again waited upon by a mob of men, who knocked at the door of the editor's residence, he appeared, and was ordered to place forthwith. He then fired upon the mob, and was severely wounded.

Upon this, the enraged citizens fell upon him, and killed him upon the spot.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—A telegraphic communication with Vancouver, British Columbia, is now to hand.

The news of the assassination of President McKinley was received at Vancouver's British Columbia with every evidence of sorrow.

The English residents closed their business with the American consular

NEW YORK, April 11.—A constant stream of people have been passing through the room where the remains of President McKinley are lying in state. They pass at the rate of eighty a minute. At midnight the German Society, numbering about one thousand voices, chanted: "Gods throughout the night."

...the long side of the zone was to view the remains, it was kept
this morning it seemed unlikely sometime after daylight, was length
, extending from Warren to
to, on B-odway, on the west side ball, while there was another length remaining through the st
the east side of the hall.

...plces of business were closed, wh
...stories of every building along the
the procession were occupied by an
...the

o'clock.—The procession is now moving to the remains to the Hudson River. It is one of the most impressive spectacles ever witnessed in New York, perhaps it was never equaled here are no vehicles in the line of procession and it moves with an awe-inspiring dignity to the mournful music of the various bands.

The military are out in full force, as are a large number of civic societies. The march is the first of the festival in front of the City Hall.

fire this morning, causing great excitement when the cry of fire was made. The presence of mind of an officer, who promptly tore down the burning drapery, a rush in the crowd, which probably have caused loss of life. The crowd in Broadway was so great it was necessary to run chains around the thoroughfares which the procession went into the Park. The number who viewed the remains was estimated at one hundred and twenty thousand.

BUFFALO, April
Three propellers started out this morning in the ice in sight of the harbor.

CINCINNATI, April
The river has fallen two feet two inches in two feet three inches water in the Weather clear. Thermometer 64,

